8 am Low Mass; 7 pm High Mass.

At the end of the Gospel on Ascension Thursday the paschal candle is extinguished, and after Mass it is removed from the sanctuary.

THE NOVENA FOR PENTECOST: MAY 10-18

When Our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven to claim His Heavenly Throne, the Apostles, the disciples and the women, gathered in the cenacle to pray for the coming of the Holy Ghost. After Nine Days of prayer, they received tongues of fire on Pentecost. We imitate the apostles in the original novena of the Church and pray for the same nine days. Copies of the prayer will be distributed and available on the parish website at that time.

INDULGENCES FOR PENTECOST

A partial indulgence is granted the Christian faithful who devoutly take part in a publicly celebrated novena before the solemnity of Pentecost. A plenary indulgence is granted to the Christian faithful who devoutly sing or recite the hymn, Veni Creator Spiritus on the Solemnity of Pentecost.
