ST. MARTIN'S LENT - 40 DAYS BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Nov 12th - Dec 24th

The current law of the Church requires no penance or fasting during Advent, except the usual abstinence on Fridays. But, going back at least as early as the year AD 480, the practice in France was fasting on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from the feast of St. Martin of Tours until Christmas. By the ninth century, Advent was reduced in the West to four weeks. Likewise, fasting was reduced to abstinence by the 12th century. By the 13th century, only the monks were required to keep the Advent discipline. In 1962, the law of the Church required the faithful to fast and abstinence from meat on December 7th: the Vigil of the Immaculate Conception; and on the three Ember Days of Advent: Wednesday December 20th; Friday, December 22nd, Saturday, December 23rd and Christmas Eve (December 24th). This year, Christmas Eve falls on a Sunday, so that no fasting or penance are required since it is the Lord's Day.

The following are suggestions on how to observe St. Martin's Lent:

Sundays and Solemnities: no penance, fasting or abstinence

St. Martin's Lent (Nov 12-Dec 2):

Partial Abstinence every day except Sunday

Full Abstinence on Wednesday and Friday

Advent (Dec 3-24th):

Partial Abstinence every day except Sunday

Fast/Abstinence on Wednesday and Friday

Ember Days (Dec 20, 22, 23): Fast and Partial or Full Abstinence

Vigils (Dec 7th/24th): Fast and Abstinence

(Dec 24th this year is a Sunday, so no fast or abstinence on that day)
